

Job Vacancy

Mercy Corps, an international non-governmental relief and development agency, is seeking candidates for the following positions for our office in Gaza.

Psychosocial Project Coordinator (1)

Duration: 4.5 months with possibility of extension

Main Responsibilities:

The Psychosocial Project Coordinator will be responsible for the field-level coordination of the psychosocial activities for children carried out in partnership with local community-based organisations and local and international specialist organisations in the field of international mental health.

Requirements:

Candidates must have excellent organizational skills, the ability to coordinate effectively with others and enjoy working independently. A degree in psychology and proficiency in MS Office, excellent verbal and written communication skills in English and Arabic, and possession of a valid driving license are required.

Psychosocial Project Monitor (1)

Duration: 5.5 months with possibility of extension

Main Responsibilities:

The Psychosocial Project Monitor will be responsible for the monitoring of the programme outcomes and work in close collaboration with the coordinator and the programme manager to ensure data is captured comprehensively and accurately. The monitoring specialist will establish good working relationships with staff at the community-based organisations, parents, teachers and beneficiaries.

Requirements:

The position requires a degree in the field of social science, development studies or a related field with a strong focus on qualitative and quantitative research in the behavioural field. Candidates must have a lust for social enquiry, meticulous research capabilities and elevated attention to detail. Previous experience in the field of monitoring or behavioural research as well as proficiency in all MS office applications is a must and SPSS is desirable.

Note: Persons with a disability are highly encouraged to apply.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a one page cover letter outlining how their skills and experience match our requirements and their CV by e-mail to Gaza-jobs@ps.mercycorps.org no later than November 14, 2009. Only short-listed candidates who currently reside in the Gaza Strip will be contacted.
